DID YOU KNOW?

One of leading causes of pig deaths is choking. Please keep the Halloween candy out of your pigs reach. Some of the lollipop sticks could be hazardous as well as some of the bulkier wrappers (potentially causing choking, bowel perforations or obstructions).

Unlike dogs pigs can have Chocolate in moderation.

Pigs LOVE Pumpkins! When you're done with the Pumpkins don't throw them away. As long as they aren't rotten or moldy, give them to your pig, or donate them to your local pig rescue! Pigs can have every part of the pumpkin including the seeds. We suggest either cutting up the stock or discarding it entirely.

With the holidays fast approaching, and trick or treaters knocking at your door, don't allow your pig to dictate who can come over your house. Your pig will only act the way you trained them to act, or be a jerk because of the lack of training. You HAVE to train your pig if you ever plan to have other people around them.
